Are You Ready for Fall?

Summer begins to wind down and we find comfort in returning to our fall routine. Back to school and back to a more scheduled life. Recognizing the Holidays will be here before we know it, the urge to be prepared and a bit more organized creeps into our minds.

As we gravitate toward moving activities indoors, most of us find our kitchens provide the anchor for our family & our activities. Simple, understated and functional, Sue's kitchen helps keep her focused and organized. With plenty of storage, easy maintenance and lots of room it's the perfect backdrop for family gatherings -- big and small. View photos.
